OSK Property Wins the Best Residential Developer Asia Award

LONDON, ENGLAND – 17 March 2015 – OSK Property Holdings Berhad (OSKP) claimed the title of Best Residential Developer, Asia award in the World Finance Real Estate Awards recently. Leveraging on projects such as Mirage by the lake and Pan’gaea in Cyberjaya, OSKP is proud that the company is recognised internationally offering an insight into the complexion of the market and how it has changed over the years.

According to World Finance, “Investment in retail property remains strong. It’s not enough to just build, however, and the part played by developers and planners is crucial in realising the full potential of the real estate sector and its part in economic and social development.”

As a property developer, we will be committed and stay true to our vision and mission – bringing innovation, building homes with outstanding quality and design for the best possible community living.
